

Safeguarding Awareness Week – Modern Slavery Webinars

This short series of webinars, hosted by the South Yorkshire Modern Slavery Partnership, aims to raise awareness of Modern Slavery with professionals working in local authorities across Safeguarding Awareness Week. All professionals working in South Yorkshire local authorities are welcome to register for these free sessions. For more information, please email SYMSP@ashianasheffield.org.

Date	Webinar Details	Speakers	Audience	Drafted Brief
16 November 14:00-15:00	Identifying situations of modern slavery: the role of the local authority This introductory webinar equips professionals working in front line roles to understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is Modern Slavery • The role of the local authority is in relation to Modern Slavery • How to spot the signs for those working in high risk roles. 	SYMSP Coordinator	Relevant for all teams working in frontline roles where they encounter the public.	Register online here .
18 November 13:00-14:30	The National Referral Mechanism: supporting potential victims of Modern Slavery. During this session two providers of NRM support will explain: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What support is available to potential victims of modern slavery through the National Referral Mechanism • How to refer a person to the NRM • Areas for improvement 	SY Police SYMSP Coordinator	Particularly relevant for those working in roles such as adult and children safeguarding; housing; trading standards; community safety and environment health.	Register online here .
19 November 13:00 - 14:30	Looking beyond identification: a long-term view of supporting Modern Slavery survivors. The local authority is integral to the ongoing support of survivors of modern slavery. In this webinar, the Snowdrop Project will explore: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The long term needs of survivors of modern slavery • Support provided by the Snowdrop Project in South Yorkshire • Working with the local authority to support survivors. 	Snowdrop Project	Those working in adults safeguarding; children’s services; housing and benefits.	Register online here .